

Workshop: Methodological dimensions of the RECON democracy models

Vienna, 18 December 2009

Programme

09:30	We meet at the entrance of Alma Hotel and walk to the Academy
10:00 – 10:45	A The challenge of operationalising and analyzing political claims under the RECON models Manos Sigalas , Austrian Academy of Sciences
10:45 – 11:30	Collective identification and the RECON models: Constraints of the conceptualization and operationalisation Olga Brzezińska and Magdalena Góra , Jagiellonian University
11:30 – 12:15	Patterns of MEP co-ordination within the EU's multilevel parliamentary field Eric Miklin , Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam
12:15 – 14:00	Lunch break
14:00 – 14:45	The content and quality of representation in the European Assembly: Towards building an updated Discourse quality Index at the EU level Dionysia Tamvaki , University of Reading
14:45 – 15:30	Claims-making analysis in Atlas.ti and SPSS: Between quality and quantity Pieter de Wilde , ARENA, University of Oslo
15:30 – 16:15	Four arenas of political communication in the EU constitutional process mapped through different data sets in empirical test of ideal types of public spheres Ewelina Pawlack , University of Bremen
19:00	Dinner