

Workshop Collective Identity Formation

Kraków, 26-27 October 2007

Venue: Bobrzyński Hall (Second Floor), Collegium Maius, ul. Jagiellonska 15, Kraków
Organised by the Centre for European Studies, Jagiellonian University

Thursday, 25 October 2007

Arrival, Jagiellonian Guest House 'Pigoniówka'

Friday, 26 October 2007

09:00-09:30 Welcoming Address

Zdzisław Mach, Centre for European Studies, Jagiellonian University

09:30-10:00 Identity from the RECON point of view

Erik Oddvar Eriksen, ARENA, University of Oslo

10.00-10:30 Keynote speech: 'Europe as a Narrative Network: Taking Serious the Social Embeddedness of Identity Constructions'

Klaus Eder, Humboldt University Berlin

11:00-13:00 SESSION I

Key issues related to the collective identity construction with regard to the EU enlargement (part I)

Chair: Klaus Eder

'Enlargement and the EU's Quest for Identity', Helene Sjursen, ARENA, University of Oslo

'Culture and Identity: Does It Play a Role in EU Enlargement', Evrin Taskin, Sabanci University, Istanbul

'Complex Identities: Reconsidering Identity Analysis', Maria Heller and Agnes Renyi, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest

'European Enlargement: Identity Crisis and Multiple Identities', Zdzisław Mach, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

'Cosmopolitanism or Ethnic Branding? On the Tensions of Roma Identity in the Process of European Integration', Hagen Schulz-Forberg, University of Aarhus, Denmark

Discussion

13:00-14:00 LUNCH

14:30-16:30 SESSION II

Key issues related to the collective identity construction with regard to the EU enlargement (part II)

Chair: Erik Oddvar Eriksen

'Mechanisms of European Identity Formation and their Operationalisation in Empirical Research: The Case of the ESDP', Cathleen Kantner, Free University Berlin

'Deepening and Widening: Collective Identity Formation in the Constitutionalisation Process of the EU', Hans-Jörg Trenz, ARENA and University of Oslo

'Beyond Re-nationalisation and European Identity Formation: The German Constitutional Treaty Debate in a Transnational Perspective', Ulrike Liebert, University of Bremen

'Polish Public Opinion Regarding the Treaty Establishing Constitution for Europe', Olga Brzezińska, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

Discussion

17:00-19:00 SESSION III

Mapping the distribution of identities in Hungary, Poland and Turkey

Chair: Cathleen Kantner

'Turkey in Cosmopolis? Turkish Elite Perceptions of a European Project', Nora Fisher, University of Oxford, Great Britain

'Understanding Democracy in New Europe: Dynamics of political identity in CEE', Grzegorz Pożarlik and Magdalena Góra, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

'Nation, Nationalism, Identity: A Critical Overview of National Identity Research in Hungary', Borbala Kriza, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest

'National Identity in Quantitative Empirical Surveys', Petra Rakusanova, Institute of Sociology, Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic

Discussion

Saturday, 27 October 2007

09:00-11:00 SESSION IV

Introducing innovative empirical methodology in the identity analysis

Chair: Zdzisław Mach

'Identity in Focus: Designing and Initial Data of a Qualitative Research', Peter Bodor, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest

'Research on Women Who Define Identity through Political Struggle for Gender Equality and/or Difference in Poland: Methodological challenges', Paweł Kubicki, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

'Values and Cultural Identities in Poland: Research Summary', Arkadiusz Bialek, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

'Media Representations: Democratization, Europeanization, Civil Society and Identity', Jacek Kołodziej, Michał Bukowski, Katarzyna Jagodzinska, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

Discussion

11:30-13:00 SESSION V

Enlargement and identity changes: The case of national and ethnic minorities

Chair: Maria Heller

‘Ukrainian Minority in Poland: New Social Reality’, Jacek Nowak, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

‘Changing importance of German Identification in Poland in the Context of European Integration’, Marcin Galent, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

‘No Speak, No Hear, No See... Does Silesian Minority in Poland Matter?’, Anna Motyczka, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

Discussion

13:00-14:00 LUNCH

14:00-15:30 SESSION VI

Enlargement and identity changes: The case of migrant workers and active women's groups

Chair: Ulrike Liebert

‘Migration, European Union and Civil Society: Research Conclusion’, Dariusz Niedźwiedzki, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

‘To Which Space do I Belong? The Polish Migrants Sense of Place and Imagining Citizenship’, Marta Moskal, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

‘Negotiating the Women’s Identity in Local Communities in Poland: Research Conclusions’, Paweł Kubicki and Łucja Piekarska-Duraj, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

Discussion

17:00-18.00 Meeting of the participants of RECON WP 8 – Identity Formation and Enlargement

Library, Jagiellonian Guest House ‘Pigoniówka’

Sunday, 28 October 2007

Departure

Contact:

Magdalena Góra,

e-mail: gora@ces.uj.edu.pl

Phone.: +48 12/429 80 00

Fax: +48 12/429 70 52

or

Monika Nowak

e-mail: monika@ces.uj.edu.pl

Phone.: +48 12/429 80 11 ul.

Fax: +48 12/429 70 52

Centre for European Studies

Jagiellonian University

Jodłowa 13, 30-252 Kraków

www.europeistyka.uj.edu.pl